I am disgusted by the decision to let these convicted criminals get off. What a shameful, embarrassing joke of a settlement! Not only letting them off but actually allowing them to expand their monopoly in the education market.

With the Supreme court decision to decide the presidential election, the curtain was lifted to reveal a very ugly side of our government. Even within that context, this decision is shocking. It is now unmistakably clear who is in the driver's seat of our government these days -- and it is not the people.

Let us hope the Europeans have not been similarly corrupted. Perhaps they will have the guts, and honor to deal with them properly.
